

EEE Lectures Fall 2014

September

Discovering Vermont's Built Treasures - Glenn Andres, Professor of the History of Art and Architecture, Middlebury College, 9/8/2014	Vermont History
Special OLLI event: Major Issues in Higher Education and Implications for Lifelong Learning - Thomas Sullivan, President, University of Vermont, 9/9/2014	Vermont Issues
Painting a Nation: American Paintings at Shelburne Museum - Thomas Denenberg, Director, Shelburne Museum, 9/12/2014
My Return to Cuba - David Garten, Photojournalist, 9/15/2014	Foreign Affairs
Field Trip: A Walking Tour of the Middlebury Historic District , 9/16/2014
An Armchair Tour of Pine Street, Burlington's Historic Industrial Corridor - Britta Tonn, Architectural Historian, 9/19/2014	Vermont History
Public Libraries and Lifelong Learning: Changes, Opportunities, and Challenge - Martha Reid, State Librarian, Vermont Department of Libraries, 9/22/2014	Vermont Issues
A Century After World War I: Are We Sleepwalking Again? - George Jaeger, Senior Foreign Service Officer, Retired, 9/29/2014	Foreign Affairs

October

Does Canada Matter? - David Massell, Professor of History, University of Vermont, 10/3/2014	Foreign Affairs
Conflicts in and around the Central African Republic - Ambassador Laurence Wohlers, 10/6/2014	Foreign Affair
India: Emerging Superpower or Stumbling Giant - Ambassador Jeff Lunstead, 10/10/2014	Foreign Affair
A Fair Examination of U.S. Foreign Policy - Barrie Dunsmore, Former ABC News Foreign Correspondent, 10/13/2014	Foreign Affair
The Hebrew Bible Through Plants - Jo Ann Gardner, Author/Lecturer, 10/17/2014
Environment, Community, Opportunity, Sustainability (ECOS) Plan - Charlie Baker, Executive Director, Chittenden County Regional Planning Commission, 10/20/2014	Vermont Issues
Early Vermont History: Finnigans, Slaters, and Stonepeppers - Vincent Feeney, Author/Lecturer, 10/24/2014	Vermont History

Using Restorative Justice to Respond to Crime in Our Communities - Kate Searles Brayton, Essex Community Justice Center, 10/27/2014	Vermont Issues
Brazil's Economic Challenge: Balancing the Goals of Economic Growth, Poverty Alleviation, and Environmental Conservation - Joshua Farley, Professor of Community Development and Applied Economics, University of Vermont, 10/31/2014	Foreign Affairs

November

Program and Services of Visiting Nurse Association Family Room - Samantha Stevens, Program Manager, VNA Family Room, 11/3/2014	Vermont Issues
Paul Heintz, Political Reporter, Seven Days Covering Vermont News, 11/7/2014
Ragtime: The Rise and Response of African American Music in World War I - William Ellis, Assistant Professor of Music, Fine Arts Department, Saint Michael's College, 11/10/2014
Under the Golden Dome: Covering Politics and Government in Vermont - Peter Hirschfeld, State Government/Legislature Reporter, Vermont Public Radio Covering Vermont News, 11/14/2014
How Vermont and Its News Media Have Changed in the Last 40 Years - Sam Hemingway, Senior Writer, Burlington Free Press Covering Vermont News, 11/17/2014
The Future of News in Vermont - Anne Galloway, Editor/Executive Director, VTDigger.org /Vermont Journalism Trust Covering Vermont News, 11/21/2014
Andrew Harris, UVM's Forgotten Abolitionist - Kevin Thornton, Vermont Historian, 11/24/2014	Vermont History
A Cultural Tour of Istanbul, Western Turkey, and Cappadocia - Sheri and Richard Larsen, 12/5/2014	Foreign Affairs
Dec. 5... Winter Luncheon at noon, program starts at 1:00 Covering Vermont News	