Elder Education Enrichment (EEE)

EEE is a lifelong learning organization presenting 12 weeks of interesting and diverse programs each fall and spring. It is open to anyone wanting educational experiences just for the joy of learning--no tests, papers, or grades. We are run by volunteers and supported by dues. Membership also entitles you to attend programs at 8 OLLI (Osher Lifelong Learning Institutes) sites throughout Vermont and gives you the discounted member rate for OLLI at UVM campus programs.

When & Where Does EEE Meet?

- Mondays & Fridays, 2:00-3:00 pm
- Faith Methodist Church, 899 Dorset St., South Burlington
- Handicapped Accessible

What Parking is Available?

- Upper and lower lots at the church
- Overflow parking at Temple Sinai, Swift & Dorset Streets, just up the hill

How Can I Get More Information?

- Website at www.EEEVermont.org
- E-mail us at info@EEEVermont.org
- Weather-related cancellations? Check website or call Mary (653-4835) or Stephanie (863-1876)

Please help us by completing the following short questionnaire.

Would you be willing to volunteer for EEE?

If "yes", check all that apply ___ distribute EEE brochures through your church, club, residence or to other groups that might be interested in EEE ___ assist with or manage CD library

___ be an occasional substitute at the check-in table

___ pass around a microphone during question & answer time ___ share your skills (legal, financial, business, technology, or other)

The Program Committee is the lifeblood of EEE, providing us with excellent speakers on timely and interesting topics. The committee:

- meets regularly to plan each semester
- identifies topics and themes for the program
- identifies and contacts possible speakers
- schedules speakers and acts as liaison for their presentations
- seeks feedback and reviews program evaluations

Would you be willing to serve on the Program Committee or provide speaker/topic suggestions and contact information to the committee?

___ yes ___ not at this time

The Special Events Committee ensures that EEE is a social as well as an intellectual experience. The committee:

- meets to plan special events for EEE participants
- organizes and manages coffee hours
- plans and manages a December luncheon and May annual meeting
- plans and participates in field trips

Would you be willing to help out or serve on the Special Events Committee?

___ yes ___ not right now

Please share your suggestions for future programs, speakers, or field trips:
